Comparing to international studies, averaged 2.5 medicine per patient and 1.93 medicine per patient in SCA Afghanistan study.

Main Players in the Private Pharmaceuticals Market

Figure 2 provides a guide to the main players in the private sector pharmaceuticals supply chain. However, there may also be middlemen, or “agents”, facilitating transactions such as distribution of pharmaceuticals from a producer, importer or wholesaler to provincial pharmacies. Researchers were frequently told that such agents were used, but did not encounter any agents directly. Okasha Medicine is the importer in the figure below.
